

George Brown College : St James Campus >
<http://tntsoccer.tripod.com>

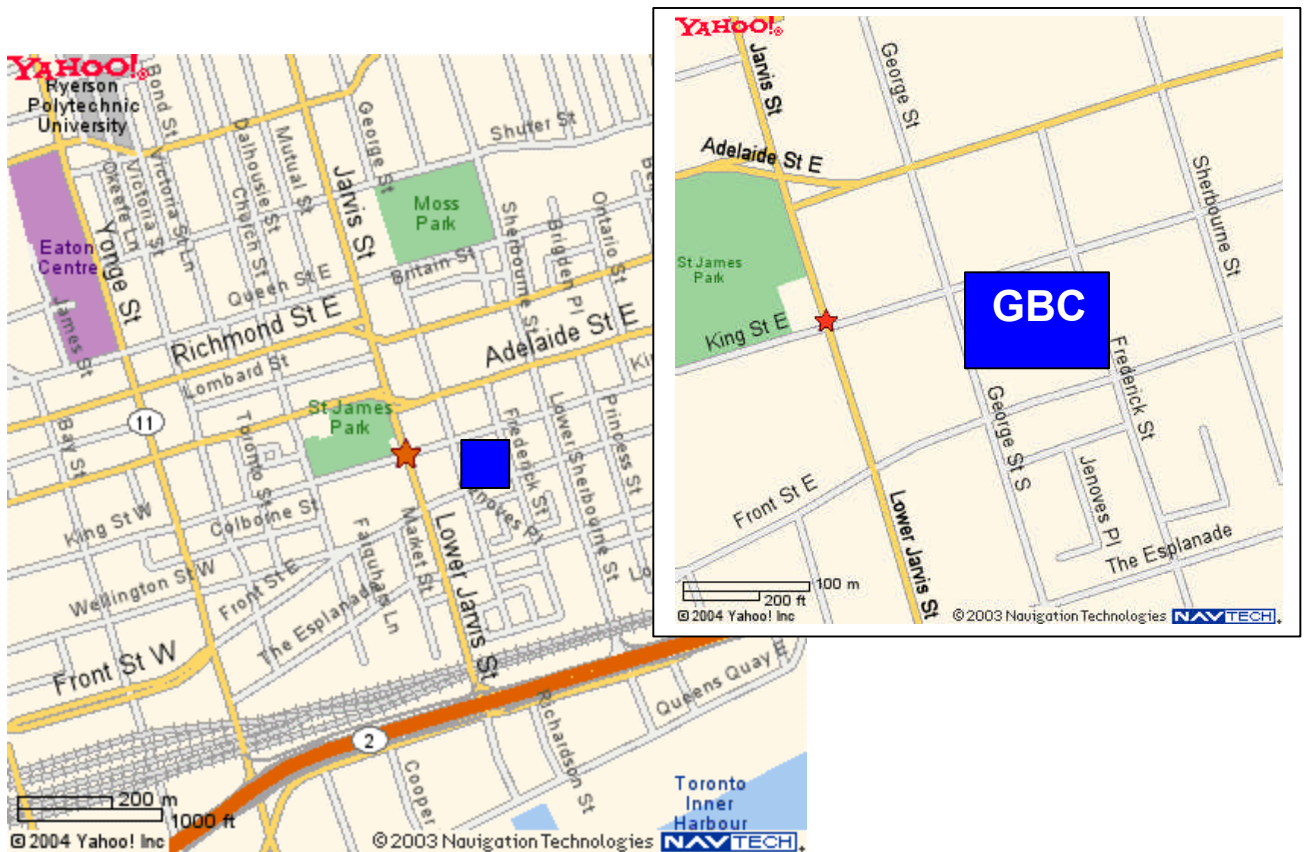

Location :

George Brown College has two campus locations, Casa Loma and St James. Our practice will be at St. James, which is located in downtown Toronto at the intersection of Jarvis and King Street.

If you have not been there in a while you will notice that it is now a bustling neighbourhood with restaurants, designer furniture stores, and funky condos and lofts.

George Brown College Of Applied Arts and Technology
Campus Locations - St James
200 King Street East
416-415-2000

The college is located on the east/north corner one block in between George and Frederick Streets between King and Adelaide Street East.

The school has a gym on the sixth floor, which is where we will be having practice. To access it enter the school through the main entrance (off King Street), the bookstore will be to your right, walk straight past the coffee place to the elevator banks in the north end of the school. Take them to the fifth floor and exit. In front just to the left are stairs, which will take you to the sixth floor and the gym.

On the sixth floor walk forward and to the left down the hall (past the weight room) and enter in the gym doors. See Joe for the lock combination and location of the change rooms.

Driving Directions :

You can access the school by driving east on King to Jarvis and parking in the area at a local parking lot or metered spot (make sure you buy enough time).

You can also come down Jarvis to King and follow the above directions for parking. There is no school parking lot.

Subway Directions :

Take the subway to King Station. Exit to the street (make sure you have a transfer for the streetcar). Board the streetcar going east and exit when Jarvis is called as the next stop. The college is across the street on the north/east corner.
